(a) the State-wise number of incidents of harassment of new brides for dowry, instigating them to commit suicide and killing them by their-in-laws in Delhi, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh and Punjab which occurred since January, 1999;

(b) the steps taken by Government in,this regard;

(c) whether Government are considering to make the present laws more stringent in this regard; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) Information recieved from National Crime Records Bureau in this regard is given in the statement (annexed). (.See below)

(b) to (d) 'Police' and 'Public Order' being State subjects as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, the registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crimes is essentially the responsibility of the State Governments. However, the Central Government has, from time to time, been writing to the State Governments emphasising the need to take measures in order to check the menace,of crime against women. The measures suggested by the Central Government include, inter alia, appointment of Dowry Prohibition Officers setting up of Women Cells in police stations, wider recruitment of police officers and gender sensitisation training to police personnel. The Central Government has also been stressing upon the State Governments the need to ensure implementation of the existing laws, both in letter and spirit, and to bring about an awareness in the general public about the law/instructions regarding anti-dowry and other connected matters. The media is being used to project the positive role of women in society. Section 304 B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 provides for stringent punishment for dowry death. At present, there is no proposal to amend this Section.
